Awkward having you start the conversation about color with Fountain Head and the red in the diner and not introduce that through line fully--

You said it would be explained by _____

In the church, based on what you'd drawn and what you said, it looked like Yaz and Elliot would be facing up stage for the eulogy. Awkward Your drawings, while helpful in providing a clearer visual of what you intended, weren't the most effective communication tool as what you'd drawn wasn't entirely clear

Good engagement with the photos and explaining your intent based on what was happening in the photos/drawings, and you talked with us too.

Well done. Good introduction, logical reasoning and well supported to choose Oceana as the conceptual approach
Really interesting.

Really good presentation, great visuals. Very clear ideas, it would be beautiful. Good question from Bob about what does the show need, but it's something to think about rather than a criticism of your work--take that idea forward with you. I like how you filled out the presentation, it was very tight and clean.
